

Australia's free online network for educators

Supporting Educators	Teaching & Learning Resources	Professional Communities	ICT Research & Innovation	Shared e-learning Infrastructure
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Relevant, user-friendly and accessible e-learning content and services for educators o Increased awareness of the benefits of edna 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Quality digital educational resource collections o Efficient discovery of learning resources & objects 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Vibrant, sustainable communities of interest and practice o Leading practice in online collaborative tools & workspaces 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Leading applications of ICT in learning practices are promoted o New & emerging e-learning platforms and tools are demonstrated 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o A robust, scalable, flexible and cost-effective online infrastructure 'national hub' o 'Packaged and distributed' educational web services for sites, portals and devices 	Outcomes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Source & deliver topical news, debate, workshops and enquiry services o Employ user-centred development processes o Create and promote edna content and functions for the education and training community 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Aggregate, share & distribute educational resource collections o Enhance collection administration tools, harvesting and metadata services o Provide relevant & fast user search experience for educational resources 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Support Groups and Lists owners and members o Support professional learning in the use of ICTs for learning o Provide free online & 'web 2.0' services for educators 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Showcase applied e-learning research & new practices o Trial new digital content & collection practices o Maintain ICT in learning 'labs' to explore and demonstrate social networking applications o Monitor international e-learning developments 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Deploy best of breed content & repository management systems, enterprise search & collaborative workspace applications o Support distributed applications & RSS services o Promote and publish e-learning benchmarks & standards 	Strategies
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Usage of all edna services across sectors o Diversified publishing channels o Upgraded personalised learning environments o Educator feedback o edna marketing plan 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Quality, diversity, currency & relevance of digital resources o Shared learning content available through collection partnerships o Availability of multimedia learning objects 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Growth, diversity & support of cross-sectoral online networks o Provision of professional learning opportunities o Deployment of social networking tools 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Proof of concepts for collections and communities evaluated & documented o Participation of educators in edna trials o Innovations migrated to edna production environment 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Technology and standards roadmap maintained o Effective release & deployment of current application versions o Usage and ROI of syndicated web content & applications o Better informed planning processes 	Indicators

edna is a collaboration between all Australian governments, states and territories and sectors of education and training